

COMPLIANCE AND ETHICAL CONDUCT AGREEMENT

Illinois License #22128144

Date of Execution: March 17, 2026

PARTIES

This Compliance and Ethical Conduct Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into as of the date of electronic signature below by the undersigned agent ("Agent") in connection with the Agent's engagement with Heritage Life Solutions, a subsidiary of Gold Coast Financial Group, LLC ("Company" or "Agency"). The Company requires strict adherence to all applicable laws, carrier guidelines, and ethical standards in order to protect clients, insurance carriers, and the Company.

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Agreement is to establish compliance standards, ethical business practices, and regulatory obligations required of the Agent while conducting insurance business through or in association with the Company. The Agent acknowledges that violations of compliance standards may result in harm to consumers, regulatory action against the Company, carrier termination, and personal liability for the Agent.

2. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS

The Agent agrees to comply with all applicable federal, state, and local laws governing insurance solicitation, sales, and servicing, including but not limited to: (a) state insurance codes and producer regulations in each state in which the Agent is licensed; (b) the rules and regulations of the Illinois Department of Insurance; (c) the National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) model regulations; (d) carrier underwriting guidelines and compliance requirements; (e) the USA PATRIOT Act and related anti-money laundering (AML) requirements; (f) the Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) and Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) regulations; (g) the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) privacy provisions; (h) consumer protection laws; (i) replacement regulations; and (j) the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) where applicable. Failure to comply with applicable laws may result in immediate termination and legal action.

3. LICENSING REQUIREMENTS

The Agent represents and warrants that: (a) the Agent holds a valid and current insurance license in each state where the Agent conducts or intends to conduct business; (b) the Agent will maintain all required licenses in good standing throughout the duration of their engagement; (c) the Agent will promptly notify the Company of any license suspension, revocation, restriction, or disciplinary action by any regulatory authority; (d) the Agent will complete all continuing education requirements within the timeframes prescribed by each licensing jurisdiction; (e) the Agent will not sell or solicit any insurance product in any state where the Agent is not properly licensed; and (f) the Agent will promptly report any changes to their licensing status to the Company.

4. PROHIBITION OF FRAUD, MISREPRESENTATION, AND UNETHICAL CONDUCT

The Agent agrees that the following actions are strictly prohibited and shall be considered serious misconduct: (a) forging or falsifying client signatures; (b) submitting applications without the client's knowledge or explicit consent; (c) altering application information after client authorization; (d) misrepresenting policy terms, coverage, benefits, or premiums; (e) providing false health, financial, or underwriting information; (f) submitting fraudulent applications; (g) engaging in misleading or deceptive sales practices; (h) engaging in rebating or any other prohibited inducement to purchase insurance; (i) sharing commissions with any unlicensed person; (j) misappropriating client funds or premiums; and (k) using high-pressure sales tactics or taking advantage of vulnerable populations, including the elderly or those with diminished capacity. Any violation of this section may result in immediate termination, regulatory reporting, and personal legal liability.

5. CLIENT CONSENT REQUIREMENT

The Agent must obtain clear and verifiable authorization from the applicant before submitting any insurance application. Acceptable verification methods include: (a) a signed physical application; (b) a verified electronic signature; (c) a recorded phone authorization; or (d) documented written consent. Submitting an application without proper client authorization shall be considered fraudulent conduct and grounds for immediate termination.

6. APPLICATION ACCURACY

The Agent agrees that all applications must be submitted with complete and accurate information. The Agent shall not: (a) guess or fabricate client information; (b) submit incomplete applications knowingly; or (c) hide or omit relevant underwriting information. The Agent is responsible for verifying all information with the client prior to submission and shall document the verification process.

7. CARRIER UNDERWRITING COMPLIANCE

The Agent agrees to comply with all insurance carrier underwriting rules and guidelines. The Agent shall not attempt to: (a) circumvent underwriting guidelines; (b) manipulate application answers to secure approval; or (c) submit policies for clients who do not qualify under carrier rules. Violation of carrier compliance requirements may result in contract termination, carrier reporting, and liability for damages.

8. SUITABILITY AND BEST INTEREST STANDARDS

The Agent acknowledges the obligation to act in the best interest of clients and agrees to: (a) conduct a thorough needs analysis for each client before recommending any insurance product; (b) recommend only products that are suitable for the client's financial situation, insurance needs, risk tolerance, and investment objectives; (c) disclose all material information about recommended products, including costs, risks, limitations, and alternatives; (d) document the basis for each recommendation in writing; (e) never engage in churning, twisting, or any other practice designed to generate commissions at the expense of the client's interests; (f) comply with all annuity suitability regulations, including the NAIC Suitability in Annuity Transactions Model Regulation; and (g) prioritize the client's interests above the Agent's own financial interests or the interests of the Company.

9. ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING (AML) COMPLIANCE

The Agent agrees to: (a) complete the Company's AML training program within thirty (30) days of onboarding and annually thereafter; (b) follow all Company procedures for identifying and reporting suspicious activities; (c) verify the identity of all clients and beneficiaries in accordance with the Company's Customer Identification Program (CIP); (d) report any suspicious transactions or activities to the Company's designated AML Compliance Officer immediately; (e) maintain records of all client identification documents and transaction information as required by law; (f) cooperate fully with any AML audits, examinations, or investigations conducted by the Company or regulatory authorities; (g) avoid accepting suspicious funds or transactions; and (h) never knowingly assist or facilitate money laundering, terrorist financing, or any other financial crime. Failure to comply with AML laws may result in regulatory penalties and criminal prosecution.

10. DATA PROTECTION AND PRIVACY

The Agent agrees to: (a) protect all client personal information and PII in accordance with applicable privacy laws and Company policies; (b) access client information only on a need-to-know basis and only for legitimate business purposes; (c) not store client PII on personal devices unless encrypted and approved by the Company; (d) immediately report any data breach or suspected breach to the Company's Privacy Officer; (e) dispose of documents containing PII through secure shredding or electronic deletion; (f) not share login credentials or access to Company systems with any unauthorized person; and (g) comply with all Company information security policies and procedures.

11. DOCUMENTATION AND RECORDKEEPING

The Agent agrees to maintain proper documentation of all client interactions and sales activity. Records shall include, as applicable: (a) client notes and needs analysis documentation; (b) application copies; (c) recorded calls; (d) signed disclosures; (e) replacement forms; and (f) any other documentation required by the Company or applicable regulations. Such documentation may be required for internal audits, carrier reviews, or regulatory investigations and shall be retained for the period required by applicable law.

12. REPORTING OBLIGATIONS

The Agent agrees to promptly report to the Company: (a) any customer complaints, whether written or verbal; (b) any regulatory inquiry, examination, investigation, or enforcement action; (c) any criminal charges, indictments, or convictions; (d) any civil lawsuits related to insurance activities; (e) any errors or omissions in client applications or policy documents; (f) any known or suspected violations of this Agreement by any person; and (g) any changes in personal circumstances that could affect the Agent's ability to comply with this Agreement, including bankruptcy, tax liens, or judgments.

13. COOPERATION WITH INVESTIGATIONS

The Agent agrees to fully cooperate with any: (a) internal Company compliance review or audit; (b) insurance carrier audit or inquiry; (c) regulatory investigation or examination; or (d) government inquiry or law enforcement investigation. Failure to cooperate with such investigations may result in immediate termination and further legal action.

14. FINANCIAL LIABILITY FOR NON-COMPLIANT BUSINESS

The Agent agrees to assume full financial responsibility for any losses resulting from the Agent's misconduct or non-compliant business practices. Such losses may include but are not limited to: (a) chargebacks; (b) carrier penalties; (c) client refunds; (d) regulatory fines; (e) legal damages; and (f) administrative costs incurred by the Company in addressing the Agent's non-compliance.

15. CHARGEBACK LIABILITY FOR MISCONDUCT

The Agent agrees that any chargebacks resulting from: (a) fraudulent activity; (b) policy misrepresentation; (c) unauthorized applications; or (d) unethical sales practices shall be the sole financial responsibility of the Agent. The Company may offset such chargebacks against any compensation owed to the Agent.

16. REPUTATION AND PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

The Agent agrees to conduct business in a manner that upholds the reputation and integrity of the Company and its carrier partners. The Agent shall not engage in any conduct that may damage the reputation of the Company, affiliated organizations, insurance carriers, or the insurance profession as a whole.

17. IMMEDIATE TERMINATION

The Company reserves the right to immediately terminate the Agent's association, without prior notice, for violations including but not limited to: (a) fraud or forgery; (b) misrepresentation to clients, carriers, or regulators; (c) policy manipulation; (d) non-compliant business practices; (e) regulatory violations; (f) failure to cooperate with investigations; or (g) any conduct that poses a material risk to clients, the Company, or its carrier partners.

18. PERSONAL LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

The Agent acknowledges that violations of this Agreement may result in personal financial liability. The Agent agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Company from any damages, losses, fines, penalties, or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) caused by the Agent's misconduct, non-compliance, or breach of this Agreement. Additionally, violations may result in: (a) forfeiture of unpaid commissions and renewal rights; (b) reporting to applicable regulatory authorities and carrier partners; (c) criminal prosecution where applicable; and (d) permanent disqualification from future engagement with the Company and its affiliated entities.

19. ONGOING OBLIGATIONS

The Agent acknowledges that compliance is an ongoing obligation and agrees to: (a) attend all required compliance training sessions; (b) stay current on all regulatory changes affecting their licensed jurisdictions; (c) cooperate fully with Company compliance audits and reviews; (d) maintain accurate and complete records of all sales activities; and (e) review and acknowledge updates to this Agreement as they are issued by the Company.

20. GOVERNING LAW AND VENUE

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Illinois. Any legal action arising under this Agreement shall be brought exclusively in the state or federal courts located in DuPage County, Illinois, and the Parties hereby consent to the personal jurisdiction of such courts.

21. ENTIRE AGREEMENT AND ELECTRONIC SIGNATURES

This Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the Parties regarding compliance and ethical conduct and supersedes any prior verbal or written agreements on the same subject matter. If any provision of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain fully enforceable. The Parties agree that electronic signatures, including signatures executed through the Company's onboarding platform, shall be considered legally binding and enforceable. By signing below, the Agent certifies that they have read, understood, and agree to comply with all provisions of this Agreement, and further acknowledges that this Agreement supplements and does not replace any other agreements, policies, or obligations applicable to the Agent's engagement with Heritage Life Solutions.
